

The photo shows children strengthening resilience in a school yard with the help of two clowns during a brief pause in the bombardment of Gaza.

The clowns are mental health workers who specialise in working with children. The session was part of a Days of Joy exercise for children, organised by the Palestine Trauma Centre (UK). The Centre in Gaza has been badly damaged by the bombardment. The Team hopes to raise money to rebuild the Centre in 2024.

Photo: Ahmed Ghorab - PTC(UK)

All proceeds from these cards go to the Palestine Trauma Centre (UK)

Please consider donating to the Palestine Trauma Centre (UK)

www.palestinetraumacentre.uk

Card produced by the UK-Palestine Mental Health Network

www.ukpalmhn.com